Projects

discendo

- An education tool for quickly turning static, paper-based assignments into web forms built into a basic Learning Management System
- Built on Rails, using Paperclip to manage file uploads and conversion, AWS file hosting, Devise user management, MDL styling, and a custom JavaScript form builder

Housing Insights Project

- A web platform designed to centralize and display data to put better information in the hands of DC decision makers and advocates for affordable housing
- I volunteer as a member of the D3.js team, creating visualizations to make data more intuitive for affordable housing stakeholders

Wikly

- A Rails based calendar app with Semantic UI styling, Devise user management, Paperclip file uploads, and some nice JS based interactivity
